

You're Invited

One Book, One San Diego

Three Cups of Tea

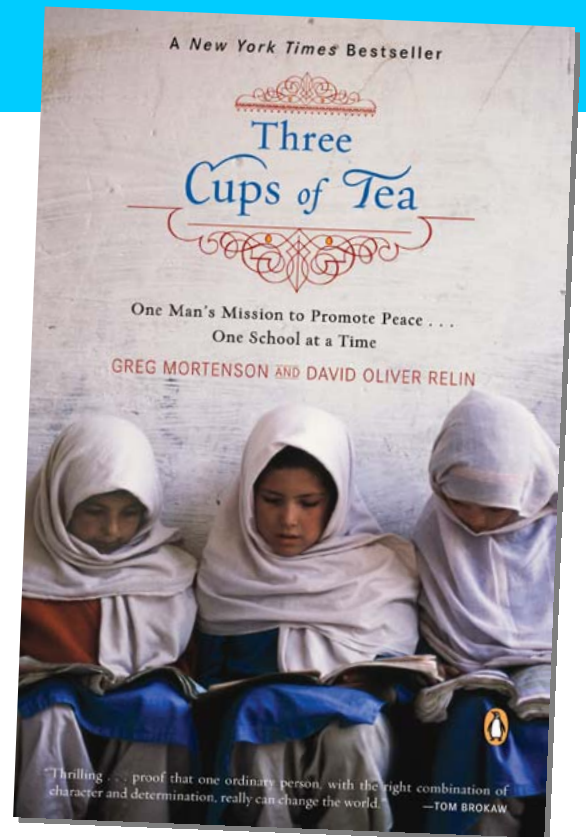

by Greg Mortenson and David Oliver Relin

Film screening with discussion
facilitated by Ghada Osman, Ph.D.

Sunday, May 4

2 pm

San Diego Public Library-Central Library
820 E Street, auditorium

WOMEN OF ISLAM: VEILING AND SECLUSION

In this film, director Farheen Umar travels throughout Pakistan, Iran, Turkey and the USA to talk with Muslim women and challenge the assumptions about the practice of wearing veils. This landmark documentary explores the origins of these stereotypes and confronts misconceptions about the tradition of covering in Muslim society.

For more information, please call (619) 236-5800.

Details about other Three Cups of Tea discussions and events are available at sandiegolibrary.org and kpbs.org/onebook.

One Book, One San Diego promotes reading for pleasure and enrichment – while educating and enlightening local residents about pertinent subjects.

One Book
ONE SAN DIEGO